9. Claim No. 114	6/19/12	GMAC Mortgage, LLC

II. Statement of Issues

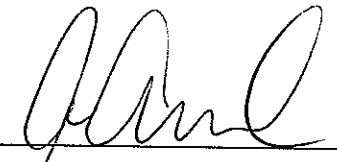

A. Whether Appellant has no standing to sue Debtor when the Note and Deed of Trust was not under Appellant's name, even though appellant has equitable ownership of the property through paying the mortgage, paying real estates taxes, collecting of rents, paying home insurance, maintaining the property, and reporting her 1040 Income Tax return every year during Appellant's ownership of the property, while also being injured and harmed directly when Appellee wrongfully foreclosed the property through fabricated and fraudulent assignment of deed executed by Jeffrey Stephan and fraudulent notarization by Thomas Strain.

B. Whether the Court erred in expunging Appellant's Proof of Claim 112 and 114 for lack of standing.

C. Whether Judge Martin Glenn abuse his discretion for not discussing res judicata issues in which Appellant has an appeal pending at the California Court of Appeal.

D. Whether Appellant has standing when Appellant listed the subject property as Appellant's estate on Appellant's Chapter 11 Bankruptcy Schedules that went uncontested under the attempted confirmation of the plan and when Appellant filed a motion to abandon the subject property before Appellant's conversion to Chapter 7.

Respectfully Submitted,

Erlinda Abibas Aniel
